Do you accept your canonical election as Supreme Pontiff?
By what name do you wish to be called?
(These are the 2 questions that are asked of a newly elected Pope.)

The Papal Conclave is the special duty and specific right of the College of Cardinals to elect a successor to St Peter (see the Apostolic Constitution Universi Dominici Gregis). The maximum number of Cardinals is 120, and they must be younger than 80 years old. This solemn event takes place in the Sistine Chapel after a formal, solemn procession. The Cardinals who vote do so by secret paper ballots placed in an urn in full view of all present. The Cardinals who take an oath to be faithful to the voting process are intentionally isolated with the intention of avoiding interference to ensure a fair election. The voting begins no later than 20 days after the death of the previous pope. If a two-thirds majority is not reached, black smoke will emerge from the Sistine Chapel. White smoke signals the election of a new pope. When the newly elected Pontiff is confirmed, he immediately imparts the Apostolic Blessing (Urbi et Orbi: “to the city and the world”) from the balcony of the Vatican Basilica. Stay tuned and remain prayerful! In all things, we must humbly submit to Divine Providence.

We pray for the souls of Anna Vukits and Bill Goryl. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The conclave to elect the 267th Pope will begin on May 7th, following the conclusion of the Novemdiales Masses to pray for the eternal repose of the late Pope Francis. Vatican News details the process by visiting <https://www.vaticannews.va>

"I ask that you prayerfully consider making a sacrificial gift to this year's Catholic Services Appeal. Every donation, no matter the size, has a profound impact. Whether through a one-time donation or a recurring pledge, your gift helps us fulfill the sacred mission entrusted to us by Christ: to spread the light of His Gospel, nurture the faith of His people, and serve those in need. Thank you for making sure that the fruits of the Jubilee Year are felt by all."
