There's no Note this week because Fr. Steve was on vacation.

Instead, here's are two quotes from St Francis de Sales:

"Do not wish to be anything but what you are, and try to be that perfectly."

"Be who you are and be that well."

Music Notes

Ellen McCarl, Director of Music Ministry

My first three months back home with our
St. Francis de Sales community have been outstanding!
Our Music Ministry continues rebuilding and restructuring with the willingness and help of many talented and committed parishioners who have welcomed me and have joined with me in my efforts.

Because we all live very active, busy lives today, my plan is to rotate and alternate groups and singers to make schedules as light as possible for all involved.

Knowing there are so many others who enjoy music, playing instruments, singing, and taking an active role within our parish, I continue inviting you to contact me to discuss how we can fit you within this vital ministry... no prior experience or training is ever required!

We can only become all we can be, and offer all that there is to offer, with your help.

He who sings prays twice!

We pray for the soul of *Marsha "Marti"*VanHaeke. Eternal rest grant unto her,
O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Message of the Cross by Deacon Jim Cross

"The message of the Cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the POWER OF GOD."

We are creatures of habit in our worship just as much as in every other aspect of our lives. We like the comfort we feel in the repetition of our prayers, our hymns and chants, and even in the tempo and style of our worship music. We even feel much more at ease in our worship when we're sitting in the same location each week. That is part of why being part of a parish is so important, because we get to develop that welcoming comfort that parish traditions, customs and routines offer. That's also just one of many reasons the loss of a parish is so tragic. As a byproduct of the closing of any parish, large numbers of the faithful suffer and grieve the loss of not only their parish relationships, but their traditions and routines as well. Many of you have experienced that personally, either by moving into the Muskegon area or through the loss of your own past parish. We have hundreds of parishioners in our parishes who've come to us by way of the closing of Sacred Heart, OLG, St. Jean's and St. Joseph's parishes over the years. And now again our Muskegon Catholic community is grieving.

As you are probably aware, my wife and I, along with several other parishioners from each of our parishes, are at St. Thomas the Apostle, on Apple Ave. this weekend. We've invited other parishes from the area to join us there to reach out personally to the hurting parishioners of St. Thomas. We're not there to "recruit" anyone, but to offer condolence and welcome, and to remind them that they are surrounded by other wonderful Catholic parishes, one of whom will be a perfect fit for them. Yes, (hopefully) that means it is likely that at least some of those parishioners will give each of our parishes a try. And yes, that could mean an increase in our mass attendance, which results in tighter seating conditions and slightly longer mass times.

I've already been approached by several parishioners concerned with the possible loss of their traditional seating locations. It may seem like hypocrisy for a guy with a reserved seat up front to "preach" about everyone else being gracious in sharing their seats, but in truth both Father Steve and I have given up our seats on a number of occasions, as well as our altar spots and some of our liturgical roles, to welcome visiting and concelebrating priests, because that's what being welcoming looks like. So what does being welcoming look like in the pews?

- 1. Like people scooting toward the middle of the pew if the church starts to look full, so that people still arriving don't have to be embarrassed to ask you to let them in.
- 2. Like not giving people a hard look if they disturb your prayer by coming in after you.
- 3. Like letting parents of young children know how much we appreciate the extra effort it takes for them to be there, and like being patient with their fussing and crying babies. Babies are the stuff of life for a parish!!
- 4. Like a smile, a handshake and a greeting that says, "I'm glad you're here."
- 5. Like making room in our hearts and our pews for as many people as God sends our way.

As St. Thomas has its final weekend mass next Sunday, let's all pray for their struggling parishioners, and let's welcome them with open arms and all the pew space we can muster, even if that means giving up our own traditional seating or sliding closer together. That's the least we can do to support them in their struggle, and to reassure them that Catholic Christian fellowship is alive and well in Muskegon. As our parish numbers continue to grow and the mass options in the Muskegon area go down, there could very possibly be adjustments needed to the times and numbers of masses at our parishes, especially at St. Michael's, which is pretty much out of cushion space. That will be for the future to tell. In the meantime, what we have now is an opportunity to be the welcoming arms and voice of Christ for anyone who comes through our doors in need of a new parish home.

Yours in Christ!
